

Mr Toby Williams B.A. (Hons)

Volunteer for the National Association for Children of Alcoholics (NACOA).

Toby was born in 1991 and grew up in an alcoholic household for most of his childhood.

Toby has written several articles about the impact of alcoholism on the family, and what measures can be taken to lessen the emotional damage and physical trauma to the children of alcoholics, and addicts in general.

Toby graduated from the University of Birmingham with a 1st Class degree in Politics.

After spells working in Parliament, Local Government and the Police, Toby is currently a Senior Media Manager for South Western Railway.

Away from work, Toby is actively involved in politics having been a Conservative candidate at both the last Westminster and London Assembly elections.

He is married to Hannah and lives in Feering, Essex.

Toby is a Volunteer for the National Association for Children of Alcoholics (NACOA).

Helping children affected by their parents' drinking